Orders shipped by air reaches you in 1 to 5 business days based on the distance of your location from the nearest air hub. Orders from metro cities are mostly delivered on the next day or the day after.

The surface shipment takes anywhere between 3 to 7 business days. Wholesale and bulk order might take another day to process.

All orders placed before 4:00 pm are processed & dispatched on the same day. The orders place after 4:00 pm are dispatched only on the subsequent business day. In such cases the delivery time is counted only from next day.

Very rarely, it might take a little longer to deliver due to the below listed reasons.

- >Limitation & unexpected delay from the courier partners to deliver to some locations
- > Busy times, such as holiday periods and festive seasons

- > Due to the nature of some of the products, we would have to rely on the surface transport which may take longer time
- > The product fails the quality check at the packaging desk and have to source another piece to fulfill the order.
